

News release

For immediate release

August 4, 2008

For more information contact:

Linda Fickau, Member Education Officer

Fox Communities Credit Union

920-993-3736

lfickau@foxcu.org

Free Seminar - Giving Credit Where Credit is Due

Managing credit properly can save hundreds or even thousands of dollars on major purchases over a lifetime. To help explore the impact good and bad credit can have, Fox Communities Credit Union is offering a free seminar; "Giving Credit Where Credit is Due".

The seminar will be held on three different nights at three different locations; Tuesday, August 19, 2008, at the Clintonville Community Center, 30 S. Main St, Clintonville, on Wednesday, August 20 at the Ramada Plaza Hotel, 2750 Ramada Way, Green Bay and on Thursday, August 21 at Fox Communities Credit Union, 3401 E. Calumet St, Appleton. Each seminar will be held from 6:30pm-8pm.

Information found on a credit report, how that information can affect buying power, and how to improve a credit score, are just some of the topics that will be covered. A representative from TransUnion, one of the three main credit bureaus, will also be sharing information.

The presentation is free and open to the public. Reservations can be made by calling (920) 993-3790.

Anyone can join Fox Communities Credit Union if they live or work in the counties of Brown, Calumet, Kewaunee, Manitowoc, Oconto, Outagamie, Shawano, Waupaca or Winnebago. Providing all members of the community with: interest bearing personal and business checking accounts, Health Savings Accounts, home loans, auto loans, certificates of deposit, financial planning and on-line services. Fox Communities Credit Union employs 250 people and has an asset size of over $690 million.

Visit www.foxcu.org for more details.