

News release

September 16, 2011

For immediate release

For more information contact:

Linda Fickau, Member Education Officer

Fox Communities Credit Union

920-993-3736

lfickau@foxcu.org

Could you be helping someone steal your identity?

Do you place outgoing mail in your mailbox with the red flag up? Do you carry your Social Security card wherever you go? Do you reply to emails from people you don't know? Attend Fox Communities Credit Union's Identity Theft Seminar to see how you may be putting yourself at risk for identity theft!

This seminar will be held on Tuesday, September 27, 6 to 7 p.m. at the Tundra Lodge and Conference Center, 865 Lombardi Avenue, Green Bay. It will be repeated on Wednesday, September 28, 6 to 7 p.m. at Fox Communities Credit Union, 3401 E. Calumet Street, Appleton.

Our presenter, Julie Russell from Diversified Investigations, retired as a police Sergeant in the investigations unit of the City of Appleton Police Department, where she specialized in white collar crimes including identity theft. She'll talk about the types of personal information identity thieves' target, what they do with the information and proactive steps to take to help avoid becoming a victim.

Reserve your spot online at: www.foxcu.org or by calling Leeann at (920) 993-3790. This seminar is free and open to the public.

Anyone can join Fox Communities Credit Union if they live or work in the counties of Brown, Calumet, Kewaunee, Manitowoc, Oconto, Outagamie, Shawano, Waupaca or Winnebago County. Fox Communities Credit Union employs 265 people and has an asset size of over $795 million.

Visit www.foxcu.org for more details.